

M I N E

POOL-A-GRAM

September 4, 2018

by

Remi Betesh

With the last licks of summer upon us, we're already counting down till our next holiday. We've rounded up the best pools from around the world that offer breathtaking views and will have those instagram likes sky rocket!

The infinity pool at Zannier Hotel's newest property, Omaanda, overlooks the Namibian savannah, home to a variety of wildlife from elephants and rhinos to lions and leopards. Perfect for animal spotting, it is not uncommon to see animals roam the savannah from the comfort of one of the sun loungers.

www.zannierhotels.com

The pool at Hotel Casa San Agustin is hidden within the centre of this elegant boutique hotel, set within the Walled City of Cartagena de Indias in Colombia. Located in three exquisitely restored XVII century whitewashed colonial buildings, the hotel ensconces guests in the history, culture and allure of classic Cartagena de Indias.

www.hotelcasasanagustin.com

Take a swim in the iconic Villa d'Este's heated floating pool over the romantic Lake Como and marvel at the iconic hotel's 16th Century architecture and magnificent mountainous backdrop.

www.villadeste.com

The main pool at Katikies Santorini offers awe-inspiring panoramic views of the Aegean Sea from the comfort of the hotel's luxurious double sun loungers.

www.katikies.com

The private pool within the King Suite at Chablé Resort & Spa, Mexico is situated within the heart of the Mayan forest, a unique setting which epitomises total tranquillity and privacy. Not to mention, the swinging hamak in the corner is the perfect spot for an afternoon snooze.

www.chableresort.com

Carved into the sides of a volcanic cliff, the swimming pool at Sunrocks Boutique Hotel in Santorini ensures that the breathtaking views hold centre stage.

www.katikies.com

At Jamaica Inn the infinity pool seamlessly blends the turquoise blue waters of the Ocean with the equally turquoise waters of their stunning salt water swimming pool.

www.jamaicainn.com

Located under the gaze of the UNESCO world heritage listed pitons, the pool at Sugar Beach, A Viceroy Resort, St Lucia overlooks the rich hues of the Caribbean Sea and tropical rainforest landscape.

www.viceroyhotelsandresorts.com