CUISINE

Chablé offers a truly unique gastronomic experience, designed by the renowned Chef Jorge Vallejo, whose restaurant Quintonil holds the 11th place in the 50 Best Restaurants in the World list by S. Pellegrino. His innovative approach to Mexican cuisine combines traditional flavors with modern techniques to create a truly memorable fine dining experience with a hint of Mayan traditional cooking.

— IXI'IM

Housed in the building that once held the machine room of the former henequen hacienda, Ixi'im's dining experience is framed by timeless, award-winning architecture.

Ixi'im takes pride in its innovative mix of Mexican and local influences, which integrates fresh herbs, fruits and vegetables harvested and collected from the resort's traditional Mayan Garden.

— KI'OL

This restaurant, named after the Mayan word for "healthy" serves elaborate dishes that honor nature. The restaurant's architecture is a fitting background for a relaxing meal. Here, water-inspired curves create a peaceful environment complemented by greenery and the property's main pool. Its open spaces welcome you to an incomparable dining experience.

REDEFINING WELLNESS

The SPA encloses a variety of offerings to bring our commitment to redefining wellness home. After all, Chablé sees wellness as everything that brings joy, peace and comfort, whether that means antique herbal treatments with a local healer, a relaxing meditation session or embellishing your skin. Based on a deep bond with nature and inspired by the cenote on-site, our spa aspires to soothe both your body and soul.

The Mayans knew a lot about the healing properties of water, so Chablé has made this element the backbone of treatments to heal your body and soul. Let this centuries-old knowledge help you on your wellness journey.

Open your heart to local traditions and the jungle landscape. Take one of the three Chablé SPA Journeys, all drawn from ancestral techniques and performed by experienced Mayan healers and experienced wellness masters. You set the mood, we handle the rest.
